Part 3:

Communication

ALiSEA aims at bringing people together to analyze, address issues and identify future mutual areas of work for supporting farmers in transitioning from their current practices to AE practices.

Main communication objectives are

- Internal Communication :
 1. Strengthen interactions and links between members
 2. Reinforce dissemination of information among the network
 3. Understand members' needs and interests
 4. Attract more members to join the network.
- External Communication:
 1. Promote members work and results
 2. Scaling up adoption of AE practice among farmers
 3. Raise awareness of general audience about the impacts of the network & AE
 4. Increase visibility and credibility of agroecological movement towards policy makers and consumers
